

WAR VETERANS ON BATTLEFIELD

Notables From the North and South Meet Upon Historic Battlefield in Preparation of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Greatest Battles of the Civil War

Gettysburg, Pa., June 30.—Twenty five thousand veterans in blue and gray the biggest army of its kind that has been gathered together in fifty years, woke today on the field of Gettysburg to the call of reveille and the warlike rattle of pots and pans in a score of mess tents.

Veterans who sat about camp fires until late at night were up long before the sun climbed over the hills at the Blue Ridge. Before the electric lights of the modern camp were turned out to make way for the sun, the veterans were singing the songs of war time and the wide streets of the tented city echoed with the "ki vi" of the "Johnny Rebel" and the hoarse yell of his Yank brother from the north.

The regular army men in charge of the camp expected 15,000 veterans to come into Gettysburg today and by tonight they will be prepared to tent and mess more than 40,000 men with out a hitch or delay. There was no set program today and the veterans were left free to look up old friends and old enemies, swap stories of '63 and enjoy themselves in any way they saw fit.

The only set event today was the joint reception of the survivors of General Buford's cavalry and the Southerners of General Wheeler's cavalry to the citizens of Gettysburg. It was Buford who discovered the gray army advancing on Gettysburg on the morning of July 1 fifty years ago and the picket who first saw the scouts of Lee swinging up the Chambersburg pike fired the first shot of the greatest battle of the war. It was Buford who stubbornly fought the advance of General Heth's division of the Third Confederate corps on the July morning until General Reynolds arrived and took command and Wheeler's men helped to make that joint affair a warm one.

Relatives of General Meade, General Longstreet, General Pickett and General Hill arrived today and were given quarters in the town.

Governor Tener of Pennsylvania motored over from Harrisburg today and occupied his tent in the grounds of Gettysburg college.

The suffragists do not intend to overlook any opportunities and have arranged for quarters near big tent in the veteran's camp where the principal exercises are to be held. They expect to attack the veterans from every side.

Notable Personages Present

Gettysburg Pa., June 30.—While thousands of veterans of both sides are here and other thousands are on their way to participate in the great anniversary encampment commemoration of the battle of Gettysburg, there are gathering upon a quiet little street of the town seven gray haired women, who, 50 years ago, acted as volunteer nurses for Union and Confederate veterans alike. Perhaps to no one of the seven are the recollections of that time more vivid than they are to Mrs. Salome M. Stewart a native of Gettysburg who except for an interval of a few years, has lived in the same house that was used as an emergency hospital during the battle.

At Mrs. Stewart's home has been established the headquarters for the surviving nurses of the war between the state. One arrival yesterday was Mrs. Telaria R. Dye of Philadelphia who was among the first to respond when the news of Gettysburg filtered it over the wires. The other aged nurses expected to participate in the anniversary are Miss Cornelia Hancock, Philadelphia; Mrs. Margaret Hamilton, Wakefield, Mass.; Mrs. Mary Stevens, Peabody, Mass.; Miss Annie Irvine, Newburgh, N. Y., and Mrs. Helen Cole, Sheboygan Falls, Wis.

Among the notable arrivals at the veterans camp yesterday was General Daniel Sickles, who declined hotel headquarters in favor of a tent pitched on the site where he lost his leg in the battle. Mr. Sickles was escorted by a cavalry and was cheered lustily by both the blues and the grays.

A picturesque personage who attracted much attention was General Felix H. Robertson of Texas who came to town clad in the full uniform of a Confederate general. General Robertson, who is proud of the fact that he was at Fort Sumpter when the first gun was fired, also declined to accept the hospitality of the Pennsylvania commission which had provided a comfortable room for him, saying he preferred to share camp life with his men. This attitude was also assumed by General A. J. West of Atlanta, Ga.

Among those registered at the headquarters of the commission on the campus of Pennsylvania college are Governor Clarke of Iowa, General Tilletson and Colonel Heenan W. Allen of Vermont; Judge E. M. Gibson, Oakland, Cal.; E. L. Hawk of Sacramento, Cal.; F. W. Castleman, New Orleans; J. W. Patterson, New Hampshire, Colonel Charles H. McConnell of Chicago brought a tent which will serve as headquarters for the Iron Brigade and Pettigrew's North Carolina brigade. These brigades fought each other in the first day's battle and their reunions are expected to be peculiarly interesting for this reason.
